AFBS COM

AFBS Get Together 2026 takes place on 1 June 2026 at Ecole Hôtelière de Genève, Geneva.

Legislation and Regulation: Switzerland

Federal Council launched consultation on legislation regarding promotional activities. Measures cover the period 2028-2031 and focus on three areas: simplification of administrative procedures, especially for SME; improvement of market access, mainly for SME; economic strengthening of regions and increasing attractiveness. Info: DE FR IT

Federal Council adopted the dispatch on post UBS-CS legislation. The measures merely concern systemically important banks and are the following: Banks are required to hold 100% of tier one capital for coverage of their foreign affiliates. The measure aims at preventing state intervention in case of unexpected loss of value.

The revised Ordinance on Capital Adequacy introduces a maximum three years amortisation period for software; this is in-line with EU standards contrary to the initial proposal. Legislation has to be approved by Parliament and is expected to be heavily debated; the Ordinance will enter into force on 1 January 2027. Info: DE FR IT EN

Federal Council approves the strategy on combating money laundering and terrorist financing. The strategy aims to provide an overview of the situation and a common framework of existing strategies of the offices and authorities involved. The focus to increase the framework is the transparency register for beneficial owners, developing instruments for criminal prosecution and stronger supervisory authorities. The strategy is primarily aimed at the offices and authorities that make up the coordinating group on combating money laundering, terrorist financing and proliferation financing. Info: DE FR IT EN

FINMA

In its media conference FINMA outlines the supervisory activity during the year under review. Nearly half of the 113 on-site inspections took place at UBS; supervision of institutes of categories 3-5 are largely data driven, with little interaction and only few on-site inspections. It increases its own supervisory activity at the banks through deep-dives. Cyber risk and client protection are key focus areas for its supervisory activity. It concluded 55 enforcement proceedings and regrets no further communication on such cases is possible. Info: DE FR IT EN

Digital

The annual report of the National Cyber Security Centre shows that attacks are increasingly individualised to their targets, also with the help of AI. Attackers continue using phishing in its various forms, ransom attacks through infected websites or weaknesses in IT infrastructure. Infection through internationally connected networks and open-source software is growing; as reliance is on many components, identification of loopholes is extremely difficult.

Although all sources of information are selected with the utmost care, errors and inaccuracies cannot be excluded.

Since 1 April 2025, attacks on systemically important providers must be reported within 24 hours; 145 reports were received during the second half of 2025. Info: DE FR IT EN

The Law on Information Assurance requires providers of systemically important infrastructure to report cyber incidents within 24 hours and to follow-up with a detailed assessment. The Federal Office of Cyber Security makes available information on the new obligations and implementation. Financial intermediaries are subject to the reporting duty and are required to report to three instances: Federal Office for Cyber Security, Federal Data Protection and Information Commissioner, FINMA. Info: Law: DE FR IT and regulation: DE FR IT EN

Sustainable Finance

Together with the University of Applied Sciences Luzern, SBA publishes a study on state of implementation with banks and on effectiveness of ESG self-regulation. The study shows that Swiss banks have largely implemented the guidelines. Smaller banks perceive the regulation and the requirements as complex and challenging. Especially, training of client advisors, classification and sustainability reporting are creating increased additional workload. Info: DE FR IT EN

Federal Council publishes its proposal for the new law on sustainable business management. The law figures as counter proposal to the popular initiative on sustainable business management, which the Federal Council rejects. The proposal takes the relevant international standards including the ones by the European Union as a baseline. The Federal Council wants to clarify the liability of the Swiss parent company and proposes two versions; one explicitly mentioning the liability of the parent in the law if the aggrieved party can evidence negligence by the parent company. Deadline for comments is on 9 July 2026. Info: DE FR IT

Foreign perception of Switzerland during 2025 has strongly focused on the way it dealt with taxes and negotiations it conducted with the USA. The measures prepared to respond to the UBS-CS case also drew much interest as well as the exposure of the country to climate change, such as through landslides. Attractiveness ranking remains very high with Switzerland among the top five or top ten according to the evaluation. Info: DE FR IT EN

The Swiss price monitor criticises banks' fees for account management and account closure. It states that even though competition has increased thanks to appearance of neo-banks, but fees remain high and restrict clients' mobility. It also states that fees tend to be aligned with SNB interest policy, increasing with low interest rates but not decreasing when interest rates raise. Info: DE FR IT and report: DE FR IT
