The new AFBS Website is now online

2022 marks an important year for the Association of Foreign Banks in Switzerland. We are not only commemorating our 50-year anniversary, but we are also pleased to officially announce the launch of our new website.

For the general public our website remains an important source of information on the foreign banks in Switzerland with up-to-date news on banking and finance. You can access reports and information on the association activities as well as contact details of and key economic figures on the member institutions.
